Know all Men by these Presents, That we, * James Robertson of the City of Philadelphia, County of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, principle, and George R. Repplier of the City of Philadelphia, County of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, and Charles W. Lautenbach of the City of Philadelphia, County of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, sureties, are held and firmly bound until the United States of America in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars, to be paid as liquidated damages; for the payment of which, well and truly to be made to the United States, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals, and dates this Nineteenth day of May, A.D. 1888.

Whereas, James Robertson herewith present his bid and proposal hereto annexed, to furnish to the United States, in the manner therein set forth, all or any of the articles designated, at the prices and of the kind and quantity therein named; and, whereas, it is a condition that no member of, or delegate to, Congress, shall be admitted to any share or part of the contract, if such bid and proposal shall be accepted:

Now the Condition of the above Obligation is such, That if the said bid shall be accepted, in whole or in part, and if the said James Robertson shall, after such acceptance, and as required by the Superintendent of the Mint of the United states at Philadelphia, furnish the articles for which said bid may be accepted, of the kind, and for the price, and according to the stipulations named therein, and if the said James Robertson shall well and truly comply with all the conditions of said contract so entered into, and shall perform all the undertakings therein stipulated to be performed, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise, to remain in full force and virtue.

I hereby certify, That George R. Repplier and Charles W. Lantenbach, the sureties who have signed the foregoing bond, are known to me as residents of Philadelphia (the same sureties being introduced to me by the notary), and citizens of the United States, and that I believe them to be amply sufficient security for the amount thereof, and that the bond is good.
